WILCOX & GIBBS SEWING MACHINE.
We would call attention to the following facts in connection with this Machine, which renders it superior to any other in use:
It forms a flat elastic seam which will not rip in wear,
It is entirely noiseless;
A patented device prevents its being turned backward;
The needle cannot be set wrong;
Can be used successfully without other instructions than accompany the Machine;
It received the Gold Medal of the American Institute in 1863. For particulars, enquire of

LOOKS SUSPICIOUS.—The copperheads are talking very confidently and with knowing looks, about a large majority east of the mountains. In November, 1864, after the accessions to the Democracy, of the renegades from Price's army and the road agents and gamblers from Idaho, McClellan carried the whole country east of the mountains, by 291. Of the emigration of last year into Oregon, we have good reasons for believing, a very small preponderating share are Democrats, while almost all the vagabonds, thieves, road-agents and gamblers who all voted for McClellan, have since found it very convenient to leave for other parts. We have reliable information that such characters, to the number of at least two or three hundred, have gone from Oregon into Idaho and Montana. The naturally probable vote, then, is reduced to pretty near an even thing, though the best posted Union men who know every legal voter in those counties claim a Union majority in the aggregate. Where do the copperheads expect to get their "SIX HUNDRED MAJORITY," on which some of them offer to bet considerable sums of money? There is the best authority for saying that they cannot poll one hundred majority—giving them the benefit of every doubtful resident vote—UNLESS THEY IMPORT VOTES from Walla Walla and the border counties of Idaho. That they may attempt such importation is not at all improbable, when we remember the history of the POLK COUNTY IMPORTATION SCHEME IN 1864. THEN, THEY DID HIRE MEN TO GO FROM PORTLAND AND MARION COUNTY TO CAST FRADULENT VOTES for the copperhead ticket. The party which is sufficiently steeped in villainy to do such dirty, dishonorable and fraudulent work in Polk, Multnomah and Marion counties, is none too honest to repeat it, in Eastern Oregon. We advise our friends in Eastern Oregon to keep a sharp lookout upon THESE TRADERS IN VOTES—to stand by the polls and see that no hired ballot from Idaho or Washington Territory, shall be cast to defraud and defeat the will of the people of Oregon.

Our dispatches this morning contain the text of the indictment against Jeff. Davis for treason, in which occurs the following: Jefferson Davis, &c., "not having the fear of God before his eyes, and not weighing the duty of his said allegiance, but BEING MOVED AND SEDUCED BY THE INSTIGATION OF THE DEVIL," &c.

We suspect that our Democratic friends, including Fay, Kelly and Lane, who would vote to admit Jeff. Davis into Congress, will not like this language from a Virginia jury, as applied to their very dear Democratic friend and patron saint. If they like it better, we will not put the language, "seduced by the instigation of the Devil," but "moved thereto and seduced by the instigation of the Democratic party." This is more mild and quite as true. We are willing to be fair with the Democracy on this point.

THE DISTINGUISHED EXTINGUISHED.—The young man Lafayette Lane, the distinguished son of his distinguished father, made a "speech" at Hillsboro last Monday, at the conclusion of which, with the skill of an adept in the histrionic art, he struck an attitude, and exclaimed: "And now my friends I have to inform you that I am acting as a pall bearer at the funeral of the Union party of Oregon!" To which a Union man replied: "Slowly, young man, your brother John, warrior as he is, has not killed the Union party yet. Better go slow." This retort extinguished the distinguished son of his distinguished father.

A MONTANA ITEM.—The vigilantes continue their administration of justice in Montana as usual. Since the execution of Daniels, whom that other garrulous old granny, Governor Meagher turned loose, a murderer has been executed at Elk Creek. The Post of April 11th, notices it as follows:

Last Monday a shooting affair occurred at Elk creek, between a man named Kelly, late of Helena, and a man named Loan, resulting in the death of the former. Loan attempted to escape, but was arrested and hanged by the citizens. It seemed that Loan had jumped Kelly's claim and attempted to eject him from the same, when angry words ensued, and the men drew their weapons and began firing. This is the first affair of the kind at the new mines.

The following is from the Courier, orthography and all:

There are times that call for an exhibition of tallents seldom possessed by the baffoon.

If this is to be taken as an example of what the Democratic Intellect is capable of, we think the "times will call" in vain a great while before we find in that party "an exhibition of tallents seldom possessed by the baffoon." There will have to be a considerable amount of tallent-ed climbing in the intellectual scale, first.

The most common expression of the people of Portland after the gubernatorial candidates had spoken on Wednesday, was one of jubilant triumph at the really powerful, logical and convincing speech of Mr. Woods, and of commiseration with Kelly's bungling and stumbling efforts to carry his Issacharian load—the secessionist O'Fay and the traitor O'Meara—superadded to himself. Kelly's hump of "rebellion record" is, in itself, too much of a load for him. Alas, poor Issachar!

The Herald editor calls upon Fay and Kelly to provide him a place at the public crib—after they shall have been elected. We remember nothing equal to this except Nasby's plaintive appeal for a post-office. But the Herald editor will have to wait some time for the provender. The muzzled ass will have to tread the Democratic threshing-floor for more than one campaign before he succeeds in slipping the muzzle so as to reach the coveted prize.

PARDONS.—It has been reliably ascertained that applications have been made and are now pending for pardon by eighty-six ex-members of the rebel Congress, 123 ex-graduates of West Point, but who served in the rebel army, 125 rebel generals, including Bragg, Longstreet, Beauregard, and several of the Lees; and also 32 prominent ex-rebel officials, and 116 ex-United States officers who held positions in the rebel service.

GONE BACK.—A few years ago Boyakin was a Democrat, schooled in "the most straitest doctrine" of that party. Afterwards, he pretended to leave the Democracy and become a Union man. From his recent conduct we infer that he has changed again and gone back, bag and baggage, to the Democratic party.

OWYHEE.—The Gould & Curry ledge, as a letter from Owyhee informs us, "is just about the largest of all ledges." It is thirty-nine feet wide, and the croppings look remarkably well. It is located at the mouth of Coffee Gulch. A large number of mills are now running at Owyhee, all said to be doing well.

We have within a day or two found in the files of the Oregon Statesman, an extract from the "Belleville (Ill.) Democrat—W. F. Boyakin's paper"—in which the Democratic editor, Boyakin, glorifies Jo. Lane, in language amounting almost to panygeric. Won't some Democrat please to howl "BOYAKIN?"

Idaho News.

We clip the subjoined items from the Boise Statesman, of May 10th:

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.

Col. Coppinger, it is said, is within a few days march of Fort Boise, with his command, which left the Dalles some weeks ago. As soon as they arrive Capt. Walker is to start with about sixty of the men and go up the Malheur looking after the Indians in that direction. That is a section in which they have not been much molested, and Capt. Walker is liable to find them there in pretty strong force.

Major Marshall is soon going himself beyond the Owyhee with a few men he has here.

Captain Collins writes from the Owyhee that he was after a band of Indians and expected a fight within a day or two.

It is said the party who followed the animals taken from Babington's about a week ago, were obliged to come back without success, after going about seventy miles. The Indians had too many hours the start. They found the carcasses of several mules that had been killed for a lunch, but could not overtake the band.

The Avalanche of the 5th, furnishes the following items:

MILLS RUNNING.

The Lincoln, Cosmos and Morning Star are now crushing the Fine rock. They run thirty-eight stamps. The Minear Mill is also running. Steps are being taken to run all the mills, and once done, they will not stop from want of rock, as a number of ledges are being opened so as to supply any amount of ore. The Lincoln Company are making arrangements with the Allison Company and are now working their ledge in good earnest, and expect ere long to supply their mill from it. This ledge has always been reputed to be a good one and the Lincoln Company will test it thoroughly. Other ledges might be put in this condition if too exacting terms are not demanded. Of all the "policies" the dog-in-the-manger one is the most injudicious. Live and let live is kind o' Christian and mostly profitable.

A LIVELY TOWN.

Boonville is quite a lively place now and will be for several months. The citizens are taking out good pay and the traders are receiving clean dust, which is a cutting hole or too ahead of the emporiums. Two stores, a saloon and boarding house and meat market are in full blast, with a prospect of some hurdies. "Calico tickleth" ye old toiler" and maketh him spend his dust with reckless liberality. He forgetteth his family and pappooses in the States and enjoyeth life with much vim, slinging calico man life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and we don't object.

BULLION BRICKS.

We noticed fourteen large bricks of bullion in the office of W. F. & Co., last Sunday. It occurred to us what a subject they will make for the "local" of the OREGONIAN—especially if the dray gets stuck in the Portland mud again. "Our mines" are "terrible heavy."

Oro is the name of a town surveyed and platted in Flint District by Johnson & Co.

A new and No. 1 portable saw mill is on the overland route from Red Bluff to Flint District. It will arrive by June 1st, and be put in running order as quickly as possible. Mr. Eaves, the Superintendent, has already arrived, and will have the site selected and other preparations made by the time the mill arrives.

GENERAL LEE'S SCHOOLMARM.—The Westboro' correspondent of the Worcester Spy writes:

An old lady, Mrs. Ruggles, is living in this town at the venerable age of ninety-three years, with faculties yet undimmed, who, while a teacher in Cambridge, numbered among her pupils a fair-haired boy named Robert E. Lee, afterwards known to infamy as the Commander-in-Chief the rebel army.

Perhaps a more vigorous application of the birch in his boyhood days would have saved him the necessity of the terrible drubbing given at a later period by schoolmaster U. S. Grant.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—J. N. Dolph, Esq., of Portland, and W. D. Hare, Esq., of Hillsboro, will meet Judge Wait and Mr. Stout in debate at Hillsboro, on Monday next at one o'clock P. M. In the evening of the same day, Messrs. Dolph and Hare will speak Forest Grove. It is understood that Messrs. Wait and Stout will meet them there to reply.

The Herald editor says positively that he is "responsible" for the articles which appear in his paper. There are parties no doubt, who will be glad to hear this, as it appeared some time ago that he was not "responsible" to the Treasury Department for the sum of $501.02, as per letter of Land Commissioner Edmunds.

LUSUS NATURA.—A fish, four inches long and without eyes, was pumped out of an oil well at Pithole, Pennsylvania, a short time ago. The well was six hundred and sixteen feet deep. The fish was put into water, but lived only a few hours.

For a day or two we have seen no allusion to Boyakin in the columns of our ophidian neighbor. We guess Boyakin has re-joined his old friends in the Democratic party. They must now keep mum about his villainies.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 19, 1866.

UNION STATE TICKET.

For Congress,
RUFUS MALLORY, of Marion.

For Governor,
GEORGE L WOODS, of Wasco

For Secretary of State,
SAMUEL E. MAY, of Jackson.

For State Treasurer,
E. N. COOKE, of Marion.

For State Printer,
W. A. McPHERSON, of Linn.

Civil Rights and Suffrage.

The first section of the Constitutional Amendment proposed by the Reconstruction Committee and which embodies what is known as the Congressional plan of restoration, reads thus "No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny any person within its jurisdiction equal protection by law." This section, if amendment shall be adopted, will put it out of the power of any party to define personal and legal rights arbitrarily, therefore, there seems to be no need for the substitute which Senator Stewart has given notice that he will offer so as to render those rights more secure. Under this provision there can hardly be any misunderstanding as to the rights to which all persons shall be entitled. But the next section of the proposed amendment recognizes the distinction which may exist between those who are entitled to suffrage and those from whom this franchise is withheld. It prescribes that any State may deny to a "portion of its male citizens not less than twenty one years of age, the elective franchise;" and then provides that as a result of this restriction of suffrage, representation shall be proportionably diminished. This leaves the whole question of suffrage with the States, and accords in this particular with the law in relation to Civil Rights. The amendment proposed by the Reconstruction Committee, fixes the question of Civil Rights definitely, and at the same time does not withdraw from the States any right which they have ever possessed. The excellence of the measure is, that it permanently settles questions of great importance which otherwise would be as fluctuating as the caprice of political parties. The rights of all persons should be defined with certainty and precision in our fundamental law so that they may not depend on the will of any party which may obtain power.

Would Admit Jeff. Davis Himself.

Until his arrival at Eugene City, Col. Kelly denied with profane vehemence that he would on any consideration admit Jeff. Davis to a seat in Congress. He still declares that he would be as far as anybody from admitting him; that he would on no account admit him—unless he should be duly elected by the people of his State and claim his seat. If he should appear at Washington under these circumstances, Col. Kelly tells us that he "SHOULD FEEL BOUND BY HIS CONSCIENCE TO ADMIT HIM. Yet Col. Kelly is not in favor of permitting Jeff. Davis to occupy a seat in Congress. 'Oh no! "Its one of the OREGONIAN's d—d lies." Could prevarication possibly be made more apparent than in the conduct of the Democratic candidates?

COLONIZING.—The Copperheads have for several months been taking Copperhead voters from counties which they know they can't carry, and COLONIZING THEM IN DOUBTFUL COUNTIES. For instance: They have no hope of carrying Marion; so they pick up loose rebels in that county and send them into Linn, where they are employed by Copperheads to take care of herds of cattle and flocks of sheep. In one or two instances which have come to our knowledge, there are almost as many men thus employed as the numbers of sheep which they are hired to take care of. LOOK OUT FOR THESE FELLOWS, AND SEE THAT NO MAN VOTES IN SUCH COUNTIES UNLESS ENTITLED TO VOTE THERE.

A RELUCTANT DENIAL.—The Herald man re- ... accordingly [see Herald of the 19th] to ... the following statement and would have ... duty to serve "the best interests of the ... with which he is identified:

... known, then, that the assertion that we have acted ... a guerrilla—whether made by "Colonel" Hawkins ... other vaporing, bombastic humbug—is false from ... skin to the core, and from the core back to the skin ... gain.

We regret that our neighbor has made this denial—because we fear he has fibbed a little. Did our neighbor ever "act" in the capacity of prisoner in St. Louis, for uttering disloyal sentiments?

The old villain, Boyakin, a Democratic editor from Illinois, and a Democratic chum of Avery and "Ox" Hall, has been pretending for a year or two to be a Union man. Just before he left—to avoid a draft he proved himself the same old reptile that he used to be.

"Carving Fork Jo" is now trying the Boyakin dodge—pretending to be a Union man.

O'Fay has been termed the head of the Copper head, secession ticket and O'Meara, the tail. We understand the tail-end of the ticket went up the Columbia this morning. The whole of it will start up Salt river at sun downon 4th of June.

Very many of Kelly's Democratic friends in Portland, of the more respectable sort, were deeply mortified at his utter failure and discomfiture here.

State Items.

W. L. Adams spoke at Oregon City last night on the political issues involved in the present campaign. He will speak to-night at the Union Club room in Portland. Mr. Adams is a very effective speaker as he not only presents the claims of the Union party very clearly and forcibly, but raises the hair of the Copperhead gang in the most artistic style. Don't fail to hear him tonight.

A camp-meeting is soon to be held by the Methodists on the old camp-ground, three miles west of Amity, Yamhill county.

We find in the local market report of a California exchange that on the 8th, provisions of nearly all descriptions were in demand for OREGON. If left to home productions would our people starve?

An old farmer of Washington county speaking of the great number of rainy days this spring, remarked that it would result in producing the best spring crops we have had for several seasons. The best grass crop is now promised that he had seen for many years.

W. C. Johnson, of Oregon City, has been placed in nomination for State Senator, vice H. W. Eddy, resigned. Mr. Johnson is not yet home, we believe, from the East, but is expected to arrive in a few days. His is an excellent nomination

We are informed that W. B. Carter, of the Corvallis Gazette, is preparing to commence the publication of a monthly paper, to be devoted to the temperance cause, and to be the organ of the I. O. G. T. It will appear about the first of September next, at Corvallis.

The Mountaineer of the 15th says: "The stampede from Canyon City to Olive Creek still continues. A gentleman writing us from Canyon City says that "Olive Creek is now the liveliest camp this side of Blackfoot. Miners are pouring in from all sides, but I would advise no one to go before June."

About a week since the Indians visited the ranch of Mr. Cozard, on the Canyon City road, and stole five beautiful American mares and colts, valued at about 2,000. A party went in pursuit, but were unable to recover the stolen stock.

The steamer that left Celilo for White Bluffs, last Friday, we are informed on good authority, had upwards of fifty tons of freight for that point

Company "H," 1st Oregon Cavalry will shortly go to Camp Watson for the protection of the country about Canyon City They are treated badly enough in that section.

The Order of Good Templars, with an existence in this State, of only about ten months, number 2,700 members.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO MAY 16.

Veto of the Colorado Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The President vetoed the Colorado bill on the grounds of insufficient population.

Congressional Proceedings.

In the Senate, Fessenden gave notice that he would, on next Monday, call up the Constitutional amendment proposition proposed by the reconstruction committee, as passed by the House, and press it to an early vote

Mr Trumbull reported a bill for holding U S courts in Richmond instead of Norfolk, which passed

Mr Sherman reported the bill he before introduced by him for the consolidation of the national debt reducing the rate of interest on the same The expense of issuing bonds shall not exceed a certain per cent

In the House Wilson obtained an order for printing a substitute for the enabling act reported by the reconstruction committee, the material difference being that any State by establishing an equal and just system of suffrage, may have its representatives admitted before the final act of the other States on the Constitutional amendment It is understood that the enabling act for the act excluding certain classes or persons from holding office, will not be pressed to a vote in the House until the Senate has acted upon the amendment. The House also passed a bill to amend the organic acts of the Territories of Montana, Washington, Idaho, Arizona, Utah and New Mexico The bill prohibits legislative assemblies from passing special acts conferring separate powers, but authorizes them to pass general laws for that purpose. It declares null and void all special charters heretofore granted by those legislatures The sixth section provides that no person appointed by the President to office in any Territory, shall receive compensation unless he shall have entered upon the discharge of his official duties within the Territory; and no officer shall be paid for the time he may absent himself from the Territory, without authority from the President It prohibits legislative assemblies from granting divorces, but leaves that authority with the courts of the United States in the Territories The 9th section provides that within the Territories, aforesaid there shall be no denial of the elective franchise to the citizens of the United States, because of race or color and all persons shall be equal before the law The 10th section gives the Territorial Secretary the same pay as the Governor, while performing duties as Governor

The House refused to strike out section 9,—yeas, 26, noes 76, and passed the bill as above—yeas 99, noes 42

The House also passed the Post Office Appropriation bill with the Senate amendments, one of which provides that all the Government advertising in Washington shall be given to the daily papers having the largest paid circulation, and no others.

The Colorado veto message was received in the Senate at 3 o'clock, but not read before adjournment.

WASHINGTON, May 16 —It is understood that the vote in the Senate finance committee on Sherman's consolidation bill was laid over by a vote of 4 against 31, and is heartily approved of by all of those who voted in the affirmative The general feeling among the members of the ways and means committee respecting it is of a hostile character, and several leading members of the House declare it cannot pass that body without material amendment.

It appears that all the failures of the National Banks have been caused by their keeping accounts with private banks, and the Comptroller of the Currency has issued a circular ordering them in no case to accept such hereafter

Report on the Freedmen's Bureau.

CHICAGO, May 16th.—Generals Stedman and Fullerton, appointed April 7th, to inspect and report on the Freedmen's Bureau in the Southern States, have completed a tour of Virginia and North Carolina, and report to the Secretary of War under date of May 8th, giving their impressions of length and closing with the recommendation that the services of agents in Virginia and North Carolina be dispensed with, and that their duties be performed by the officers commanding the troops in the Departments. They say there are 114 military officers and 290 civilians employed as agents of the Bureau in these States, and that neither the service rendered nor that received, nor the character of very many or most of its agents, warrant the continuance of their services. In those districts where the affairs of the Bureau have been fairly and impartially administered by a general good judgment, there has been no direct conflict between the agents and citizens Many of the agents are acting in harmony with the civil officers of the States and are assisted and supported by the citizens in the performance of their duties, but in many places where agents are not men of integrity and capacity, a very bad feeling exists. This originates in the arbitrary measures and offensive interference of agents or others between planters and freedmen. These agents exercise the widest latitude over judicial functions, and the effect, produced is bitterness and antagonism between whites and the freedmen and a growing prejudice against the Government by planters; and expectations on the part of the freedmen that can never be realized. Prudent and industrious freedmen rarely call on the Bureau for advice or assistance. Only the idle and worthless look to it for support. Those do not include the infirm and helpless The restoration of civil law and the recognition of their civil rights is necessary. By changes in laws, giving them the right to hold property, sue and be sued, etc., freedmen, in our opinion, are secure. The report further shows how the agents of the Bureau have been interested in plantations and wielding their power in a manner to aid their own individual interests.

The report says opposition has been met on the south bank of Trent river, in a settlement with exclusively freedmen population, 4,000 in number, whose condition is truly deplorable Those unfortunate people came in our lines and were then living in small huts built by themselves from lumber manufactured by their own hands. The settlement was recently scourged by small-pox, and their condition is well calculated to excite sympathy for their helpless state The decrepid among them are supported by Government, while the remainder procure scanty living from little jobs about Newbern by fishing in small boats, etc. The Rev Mr. Fitz, formerly an army chaplain, presides over this colony as the Assistant Superintendent of the Bureau. This Agent has exercised the most arbitrary and despotic power and practiced revolting and unheard of cruelties. We found that he had in two instances suspended freedmen with cords around their wrists, but not touching the floor, and kept them in this position in one case two, and in the other case four hours. That he sentenced a freedman to imprisonment for three months for the trivial offense of wrangling with his wife, and kept another man arrested and shut in prison for months, while his wife and children were reduced to abject destitution and died with the small-pox. That he took him from prison under guard and compelled him to bury his children in the cradle in which they died In one instance he imprisoned six children ten years old for playing in the streets on the sabbath. He imposed a fine of sixty dollars on an aged freedman for having told another freedman that he was about to be arrested by Fitz. This poor old man not having the money to pay the fine, was imprisoned till the next day, when his son paid the fine, with three dollars additional jail fees. A tax was imposed, which Superintendent Fitz says goes to the support of the bureau, and is imposed on owners of each hut, for ground rent. If occupants fail to pay this tax promptly, they are either turned into the streets or imprisoned, and in Montana News.

The Helena Radiator of the 21st ult., furnishes the following news:

MCCLELLAN GULCH—LINCOLN GULCH.

James Kennedy, expressman from Blackfoot City to McClellan Gulch, informs us that the gulches in that vicinity are turning out much better than the most sanguine anticipated. McClellan has been mined all winter. It affords good facilities for drifting, and in consequence of which much dirt has been washed during the winter. Lincoln Gulch has proved a success, the gulch generally pays well. One party has been offered $4,000 for a third of the dirt taken from one drift during the winter. Also Keep Cool, as well as many others are yielding finely

JEFFERSON GULCH.

Jefferson Gulch has surpassed the most sanguine expectation. No doubt exists but there will be fabulous piles of gold dug out of the gulch this season.

I have seen a nugget taken out to-day by Frank Ireland & Co. that is valued at $270.25, the largest one found in this gulch I believe. This company are taking out a fortune very speedily I am informed.

Many others are doing equally well in this gulch. Mr. Wate, in digging a drain ditch to his claim picked up 21-000.00 without sluicing or washing the dirt. He has saved his dirt and intends washing it He thinks it will yield more than double the amount he picked up in the ditch.

Mr. Martin, on the claim immediately adjoining the one above mentioned, rocked out $34.60 in less than two hours with a small hand rocker and no one to help him

ELK CREEK MINES.

Through various sources, we are informed that the Elk Creek mines are proving a success. Each trip of our expressman, Mr. Ennis, brings the glad tidings that all is hopefulness in that quarter. Many have commenced sluicing, and the returns for their labors are beyond their most sanguine expectations.

Elk Creek still draws, notwithstanding it is cold as blazes over there, stormy and snow till you can't rest A week ago Dalton & Jones left for there with ninety packs, carrying about 2,400 pounds of mining camp essentials A small saddle train left here for there last Monday morning Two expresses a n in full operation to that point If any one don't like the signs of spring which crowd upon us here, let him go to Elk and he will be sure to find a winter that would be death to brass monkeys

Flour is clear down, and thereat rejoiceth ye honest miner; eighteen to twenty dollars per sack are present rates, but how long they will continue so no one but the Great Being, (if there is such a being,) knows.

Trains are commencing to roll Seven wagon loads of flour were received by McCormick & Oble last week

TRAGEDY AT DIAMOND CITY.

A drunken row occurred at Diamond City, on Thursday last, which resulted in the death of Johnny Ross, at the hands of Wash Baker Further particulars we refrain from until more definiteness is arrived at.

THE RECENT INDIAN FIGHT

We take the following account of the recent Indian fight on the Muscle shell Road from a private letter, written to a gentleman of this city by one who was in the fight:

"At about 12 o'clock, just as the moon was rising, a party of Piegans, thirty nine in number, approached within forty yards of our camp made a sudden attack, with yells that were enough to awake the dead, and shot the guard through the arm The agonized cries of the guard, the Piegan war-whoop and the sound of fire-arms, all mingled together, was the first notice of attack and the sounds that aroused us from our slumbers, yet there was no panic or weakness manifested by our men. We leaped from our blankets, with guns, knives and pistols in hand, and paid back their lead with interest and soon drove them from our camp. Two or three times the attack was renewed, but easily repelled In the morning, our horses were gone, and our cattle lying dead a short distance below camp The canvass which sheltered us and even the camp kettles and tin plates about the fire were perforated and riddled with rifle balls, and the camp thickly strewn with arrows and even some of the wearing apparel used by the men for pillows, was torn by shot and cut with arrows As a dire necessity, we had to abandon all our property and take it on foot, carrying each a pair of blankets and a few pounds of flour. We traveled on until about noon the third day unmolested when we again suddenly found ourselves face to face with the red devils, who made vehement signs of peace We had scarcely reached the valley when the Fort Benton lead commenced falling thick around us Across the valley the retreat was continued, and up a snow-drifted hill where we forted ourselves by lying flat in about six inches of snow and water The engagement then became general, and our boys showered down a hundred rounds or so and sent them howling back to the timber I think we nipped a few of the red devils, but none of us were sufficiently curious to examine the field after the fight We were troubled no more except by hunger, cold nights, and fatigue."

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN is published this morning. It contains the latest telegraph news from the East and California—a selection of the best articles appearing in the DAILY OREGONIAN—full and reliable news from the Mines and the most complete commercial information published by any paper in the State.

The average amount of reading matter in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN is double that published by any other journal in Oregon, and in the particular of Commercial statistics and the Markets we aim to make it the most reliable sheet, especially in matters pertaining to Oregon interests.

Single copies 12½ cents, or $3 00 per year to any part of the United States or British Columbia.

QUARTZ MINING.—Mr W H gh Farrar has shown us a button of silver worth 8½ cents taken from half an ounce of rock from the Buswap company's ledge in north Cherry Creek, British Columbia, the principal owners in which are some of our best citizens. With all the known wealth of our mines it appears somewhat singular that large companies are so long in declaring dividends. We refer more particularly to some of the older companies in Idaho. The business in that direction has thus far been attended with little profit and it appears somewhat strange that this should be so, inasmuch as analytical assays have in most cases showed the rock to be rich in both gold and silver. In California much the same condition of things is reported and the press of that State are now engaged in showing that the meagre results from rich mines are in consequence of the operators being unable to save more than a fourth or fifth part of the precious metal. It is asserted that the trouble was that the greater portion of the gold was combined with iron or copper pyrites or sulphurets, from which by the modes in use it could not be released and hence was lost. This difficulty has lately been in good part overcome by various processes and inventions, both chemical and mechanical, such as roasting in ovens, applying superheated steam, &c., whereby these sulphurets having been first treated from the quartz become oxidized and are compelled to yield up the greater portion of the golden [and] silver they contain. These processes though not yet perfect, have achieved a great economy and must result in a largely increased product of the precious metals in California. It was by this method such large returns were secured from the rock of the Ophir Company and which in the opinion of competent judges, can be steadily kept up [on] their ledges when fairly developed, among the most prolific in the country, the results being considerably above the average obtained from the mines about Grass Valley. We are quite confident that no country has better ledges than Oregon, Idaho and other sections of the Columbia Basin, but the operators have not attained a perfect system in working them. It is hoped all the advantages may be brought to bear in the developments now being made in this section, before another season has elapsed.

THE HALF-BREED CASE.—The trial in the case of the State of Oregon vs. Lewis Andrews and Robert Scarborough for the shooting of John Andrews, was commenced before Justice Hoffman yesterday. The parties are all half-breeds. John Andrews was step-father to the first defendant, and although the wound appears sufficient to have caused death—the ball having entered the right breast and passed entirely through the person—he was enabled to attend Court and give in his evidence, from which it appears that on the 30th of April ... came to his hut a short distance below the city for the purpose of enticing away a young girl. The wife of the wounded man remonstrated when Lewis Andrews pounced upon and beat her. At this juncture ... John Andrews put Lewis out of the hut. In about half an hour he returned and called the father outside, shooting him as he stepped from the door. Scarborough is accused of furnishing the weapon, and held accessory before the fact. The old man suffered greatly in court yesterday, while giving his testimony, and a report was current last evening that he died immediately on reaching home at the conclusion of his evidence. The testimony for the State was submitted, and the case was continued until a week from to-day, in order to allow the defense time to procure witnesses to rebut evidence. The prisoners were remanded to jail.

THE VICTORIA TRADE.—The Victoria Chronicle of late date states that Capt. Erskene had arrived at that place to take command of the steamer Fidelite now about ready to engage in the Oregon trade. She may be expected to arrive here some time during next week. The Chronicle says: "and we are glad to hear it that the Fidelite is just the boat for the Oregon trade—strong, [swift] and commodious." The telegraph reported that the steamship Sierra Nevada left San Francisco for Victoria. We deemed it an error, but the Fidelite, from the Chronicle, would seem to imply that there was no mistake about the reported sailing in that direction. We quote: "Mr. ... informs us that he has made an arrangement with the ... Steam Navigation Company's steamers to run to this port under the steam subsidy arrangement of $1 500 per trip. The Sierra Nevada will be the [first] ship to leave for Victoria, and the Active will ... should inducements offer, the company will run ... a per month. The boats, with the (exception [of] the Sierra Nevada, which draws too much water) under the new arrangement will go to New Westminster. The arrangement is not the most favorable that could be [made], but it is the best that could be made under the circumstances."

[REVE]NUE MATTERS.—The Internal Revenue A[ssessor] for [this] district is now busy in finishing up the assessment [for 18]66. The returns are being made in accordance with [the] circular issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, calling the attention of assessors and officers to the act recently passed declaring the meaning of certain parts of the Internal Revenue act. The third section requires all persons in making returns to declare in such returns whether the rates and amounts therein contained are stated according to their values in legal tender currency. If the rates and amounts are stated in coin, money ... receiving the returns must reduce them to their equivalent in currency at the time and place where they are receivable. In regard to the matter of United States licenses, we are informed that such terminate annually on the 1st of May, and therefore parties doing business should see that their licenses are renewed as by not doing so they are liable to a fine of $500, and two years imprisonment.

OREGON CITY ITEMS.—Our friend Ned Kelly, the competent Postmaster at Oregon City, has established a first-class ice-cream saloon at his place, which is said to be the popular resort of all lovers of this cooling and exhilarating dish. A festival was held on Thursday evening—and another was contemplated for last evening—at Oregon City, by the Congregational church, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the purchase of an organ to be used by the choir of that church. The festival of Thursday evening was a decided success. The machinery for the new paper mill has reached Oregon City and the building has been commenced. It is located on the river in the rear of Messrs. Chapman Bros.' store, a short distance below the woolen factory. People throughout the State should now begin saving rags for this new branch of our local industries. We trust that eminent success may attend the enterprise.

FIZZLED.—Last evening (Friday) the unterrified Democracy of Portland held a meeting to organize a Club. They could get nobody to speak but Bob Ladd and a crazy fellow named Reed, who mouthed away for a time in the true southern Democratic style. Reed said that it was false that slavery was abolished—that the Democracy would yet revive it, which assertion was received as good Democratic doctrine by those present. At the close of the meeting a few antiquated Copperheads signed their names as members of the Club, but as the rest couldn't write, they could only promise to vote for Democratic principles in June. The meeting was a failure—just like all the attempts of the effete Democracy.

A LITTLE ROMANCE.—The tender impulses of a family living in the Second Ward of this city were awakened yesterday by the pitiful cries of a lost infant of rather dark complexion well ... A vigorous search was immediately instituted for the mother of the hapless ... which was soon crowned with success by discovering a clerk's wife, who claimed the little wanderer and took it away, showing no greater outward feelings of joy than did the Bostons who had cared for it when lost from its maternal protector—a ward of the Government herself lost from the reservation she should call home.

THAT SALUTE.—The Copperheads are claiming that the salute fired on Wednesday evening by a detachment of the Portland Light Artillery under direction of Captain ... was in honor of their meeting at Arrigoni's. This ... about as truthful as the reports of Copperheads generally are. The fact is, Captain Paine had the firing done in honor of the Union speakers and so informed ... of Copperheads who visited him at the time adding ... that he intended it as a force to drive the nails deeper into the coffin of the putrid Democracy so as to [for]ever prevent its resurrection.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Wm Watson, a refractory customer, was hauled up before Judge Hoffman yesterday for having been found on the streets disorderly and drunk. Upon conviction he was remanded to jail for the space of five days. During his examination Watson exhibited rather more of his bravado than suited the usually mild-tempered Judge, and was ordered to serve five days additional for contempt of court. Mathew Coteher, a new customer, was sent to jail for two days upon conviction of drunkenness.

CHANGE OF LANDING.—The boats of the People's Transportation Company plying on the Willamette river between Portland and Oregon City now make their landings in this city for the convenience of passengers at Vaughn's wharf, foot of Morrison street, instead of at the foot of Washington street as heretofore. The Alert leaves for above every morning regularly at 7 o'clock, returning at 3 o'clock P. M.

FATAL.—Our statement yesterday in reference to the poisoning of Mr. John McBernie was written under a misapprehension of the facts. It appears that in his case the accident proved fatal. He died on Sunday last. He was feeling ill and by accident took a dose of ... The funeral of ... We believe he has relatives in this city. He leaves a family.

THE UNION CLUB.—The Union party of this county have a large organization, members of which meet every evening at the Club Rooms at Rising Sun Hall. The reading room is well stocked with interesting papers and it is quite a resort. Hon. W. L. Adams, Hon. Hamilton and others will address the Club this evening.

WILLAMETTE PRODUCE.—The boats of the Peoples' Transportation Company reach their wharves in this city rather heavily freighted of late. Yesterday the cargo of the Alert aggregated over 1,400 packages of produce. This is good for the Hiles.

HOME AGAIN.—Hon H W Corbett has returned to his home in this city looking quite well indeed after several months absence in the East. He arrived by stage from California on Thursday evening.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.—From the Medical Director of the General Hospital, Benton Barracks, near St. Louis, March 8th, 1862.

Messrs. John I Brown & Son Boston Mass.—Your ... for two years I have found ... of serviceable Troches is being made in the hospital of which I have charge, and with very beneficial and decided results in allaying bronchial irritation." For Coughs and Colds the Troches give prompt relief.

Notice.—Couch's Addition O K.—All persons interested in organizing a Fire Company in Couch's Addition will meet at the Gem Garden on Saturday evening, May 19th, at 7½ o'clock. By order

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask;
We answer: 'tis an easy task:
Strengthen the STOMACH and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain;
The LIVER keep in active play,
And regulate from day to day
Each organ aid on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time
The system's tone and strength renew
And thereby cheer the spirits too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life no medicinal preparation either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever taint the heavy air;
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries;
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent,
And if you'd be relieved or spared,
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be fore-armed with

Dyspepsia's pangs that rack and grind
The body and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those toll ... ls
No er conquered yet by fossil pills
Dread diarrhea that can't be
Cured by destructive mercury
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure
Not to prevent alone but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, liver complaints, constitutional nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

To wanderers on sea or land
From Polar shores to Tropic strand;
To those whose lots in ... regions now
And dwellers in great cities too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mould,
To young and middle aged and old;
To those in health who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent aliment.

If there is any value in public opinion or any weight in medical testimony the very best and safest Tonic Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

S T—1860—X

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U S Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle or selling any other material therein whether called Plantation Bitters or not is a criminal under the U S Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Novertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

M. HOWARD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE,

315 Montgomery St., San Francisco

THE ABOVE PREPARATION, WHICH HAS BEEN recently discovered and patented, is purely a Vegetable Extract.

The undersigned are fully aware of the many unsatisfactory and useless preparations for restoring hair that have been introduced to the public, and how little confidence is to be placed in any pretensions to restoring the hair to bald heads, but having tried MR. HOWARD'S PREPARATION we are able to state that it not only prevents the hair from falling out, but absolutely reproduces it, and that we now have good suits of hair growing where we were entirely bald. Therefore as a matter of justice to Mr. Howard and of consolation to bald heads, we tender him this testimonial. Mr. H. keeps the article for sale in bottles with directions for its use, or applies it himself, as may be desired.

The Yaquina Bay Country—Another Account.

The following letter is from the Oregon Statesman of the 11th inst

DALLAS May 8, 1866

ED STATESMAN As there is considerable [illegible] and some misrepresentation in regard to the Yaquina country, I thought I would give the opinions of others in [illegible] myself concerning it. I did not propose to enter into a very minute description. The Yaquina is a small stream with a valley ranging in width from one to two hundred yards—mountains on both sides, steep and covered with brush and dead timber—no table lands of any account. The valley is cut up by the river, leaving good sized potato patches, whenever the thick brush and logs are cleared off. There is the best hand for a [illegible] through here that I have ever seen on the coast. Hangs but the population will never be able to keep it up. Consequently there will not be many [illegible]. There are a few small prairies but they are [illegible]. Arriving at Elk City you find that nothing but four or five houses and a great expectation compose this town. You stand on the road on top of the hill and throw a stone into the chimneys. There is no stable, and you have to take your horses on the boat down about 21 miles and put them on an island. Elk City is at the head of steamboat navigation and steamboats cannot come up here at low tide if they draw two feet

Got on board the steamer and by dint of pulling on ropes and pushing the bow into a hole in the bank to turn around we are off. We soon come to a road going to Elk City, running around a steep mountain next to the river. In some places the road has caved into the river and at others the mountain into the road. It will be about as easy to clear out the river as to keep this road in repair between Pioneer and Elk cities. From here down the river gradually widens to Oysterville; the water never getting lower than five feet. The mountains get lower, but rougher, pitching abruptly down to the tide lands—the "gentle slopes" so steep that a man can hardly stand up on them—"table lands," the tops of steep mountains—and the whole country clear to the coast covered with the "awfulest" amount of dead spruce, fir and brush—from Oysterville to Beach mountains ditto—the water getting wider, the channel itself being about one mile wide—no farming or stock country as yet. There are 21 feet of water at average tide on the bar.

The people here subsist by oystering, or from travelers and cannot grow any place except by water. I found but one Democrat in the place, and they tell me all along that Democrats are wondrous scarce. That is one thing they boast of. This is no place for saw mills, as there will never be any market outside for knotty spruce and fir lumber, and it dead several years at that. There is scarcely any green timber.

This is a very good place to come to for spending a short time on the sea coast for recreation but for anything else, it is mixed. If there is ever a railroad, Willamette is just as near as she wants to be, and the present state of things will never amount to much. The country is not there to support anything. There is a small amount of land up Elk river, but men tell me that it will take any amount of thousands of dollars to open a road. I am in the employ of no one, and am not interested in anything there. I went to try to suit myself, but could not. I consider the country overrated and have written this for the benefit of those who think of going there to make homes, as they can go with their eyes open. But let every one go and satisfy himself. The great "buzz" there is caused by men going in, and coming away disgusted

OBSERVER

THE HORRORS OF THE BATTLE FIELD —Roger A. Pryor, of the Memphis Argus, has taken a ride over the field of Shiloh, and contributes many interesting, and some horrible facts, to that journal. He says:

The whole face of the country, between Corinth and Pittsburg Landing, is scarred, scratched and wounded with almost indelible traces of ruthless war. Lines of earthworks and entrenchments across the "thousand and one" roads, lone chimneys, burnt and blackened trees and heaps of rubbish, where once stood smiling homesteads, whole forests pecled or "barked," and deadened by the encamping soldiery, to make themselves comfortable with bark beds, dwelling, store, and out-houses in every stage of dilapidation and decay, fields, fenceless and untended, are rapidly growing wild again—these are some of the evidences of the fierce struggle.

Of the horrors of the field he writes.

The war during its progress presented many horrible aspects, but none so horrible as this! I saw hundreds of Confederate dead—rooted out of their shallow coverings—I cannot call them graves—their flesh eaten by the hogs, and their bones scattered and broken and trampled upon in every direction. It transcends anything recorded in civilized history; it almost transcends belief. I was told by some of the people residing near, that the hogs fed so long, in this way, upon human carrion, that the pork became so offensive it could not be eaten; and to this day, some of the ladies informed me they dare not touch any hog's meat killed in that vicinity, they felt or were afraid that they would be guilty of cannibalism to do so!

In one place, about 300 yards South of the church on the Rhea place, I saw where a large number (supposed to be 150, at least,) of Confederates had been tumbled into a gully and covered up with a thin layer of dirt. The washing rains and the hogs, together, have exposed the bones here most sadly. Many of the bones are broken and shattered to pieces, evidently since they were unearthed. All the other scattered graves of the Confederates, where they were covered up by ones, twos, threes, and so on, up to dozens in a place, over the whole field, are in the same miserable condition. In but one place did I see a Confederate grave that had not been rooted up by the hogs. That was on the extreme left, where, as Mr. Hargroves informed me, there are near three hundred of each side buried in parallel trenches. Generally, the Federal dead, as at Corinth, were buried at the proper depth, and generally with head and foot boards inscribed with the names, companies, regiments, &c. Many of these head and foot boards, however, have been destroyed or defaced by the annual fires which burn off the grass and leaves of these woods. I saw but one Federal burial trench where the hogs had upturned the bones, and that was but slightly. They are generally buried too deep for that, and in some places their graves are enclosed with fences made of logs or rails.

At the Confederate gully-grave, and at all the Confederate graves—or, rather, places where the Confederate dead were slightly covered up on the ground where they fell—skulls, thigh, hip and leg bones, ribs, vertebræ, etc., lie scattered around in all directions. In one place, I saw where two Confederates had been covered up in the middle of the road; in another, where one had been pitched into a deep rut, or hole, made by wagon wheels at the roadside, and so covered. In still another, I saw where two Confederates had been placed between two standing trees, and then covered up. And in still other places, they were thrown by the side of logs (as at Corinth) and only half covered up. In all these places, the bones were more or less exposed.

The Index, the Democratic organ of Umatilla county, grumbles as follows about the Democratic ticket lately put in nomination there. The Index may as well be satisfied—the Union party will no doubt carry Umatilla county this year

We do not write this as a wanton attack upon the action of our Convention, but it is nonsensical in the extreme to shut our eyes to the defects of the ticket. To know the worst and to prepare for it, is a maxim of deep political sagacity, well worthy our attention under the present circumstances. Let us fortify every salient point, and meet the opposition with a calm yet fervent hope of victory. Experience has taught us that defeat does not always follow injudicious nominations, but that they only awaken men to the stern realities of their political situations and force them to work with unaccustomed zeal and energy. Let us hope it will be the case in the present instance

STEPHENS' ESCAPE.—The Dublin correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette says while Stephens' friends were inventing all sorts of stories to baffle the vigilance of the police, and taking such steps as sending off his wife and sister-in-law to Cork, he continued to make his way to Galway, and there embarked on board a sailing vessel which was to have conveyed him to a Scotch refuge. This sloop, however, having been forced to make Belfast by the severity of the weather, Stephens remained concealed during her stay of two days, and was thence taken to Scotland, from whence he went, by the ordinary mode of conveyance, to Dover, and sailed for Paris on the 17th of March. He arrived there on Sunday, the 18th. Instead of fighting, therefore, the Head Center was flying on St Patrick's day.

QUAKER IMMIGRATION —The Quakers of North Carolina are about removing to the West, and probably will adopt Missouri as their future home. They are thrifty, industrious and orderly people and will meet with a hearty welcome wherever they may settle. The Columbus (Ohio) Journal states that a party of seventy or eighty passed through that place a few days ago, on their way from North Carolina to Missouri. They were principally mechanics, and represented that they would soon be followed by quite a number of the same population

THE DIFFERENCE —The President has issued his formal proclamation of peace with the rebels. He had declared it previously by his vetoes of the Freedmen's Bureau and Civil Rights bills. The people of Connecticut have issued their proclamation, that they are still fighting for the principles which General Hawley and his comrades upheld on the Peninsula. They are not all tired. They are enlisted till the end of the war.—Chicago Tribune

The Democrats have caught an elephant but they don't seem to know what to do with him. The New York World says "As between the Radicals and the President, we side with him; as between us and him, we propose to kill the elephant as soon as possible." Don't the President fear assassination again?

INEXPRESSIBLE —F H Longley U S Assistant Assessor, who makes his living by meddling with other people's business has decided that saving rain water and running it through a cider mill and selling the same for one bit a drink, is the most lucrative business in Siskiyou county, California.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND May 18th, 1866

The demand for money is increasing, and we are informed by one of our leading bankers that if the State laws would give us free trade in money by removing the restrictions relating to usury, the effect would be to build up new industries and magnify old ones, better enabling us to retain the millions at home which now is being annually sent away from the State to pay for articles of merchandise which should be produced here. The present legal rate of interest in Oregon is far enough below that of California to prevent the introduction of foreign or Eastern capital here. If not to take money from our own State to be used in developing leading branches of industry in California.

There is some doubt that the usury law is merely nominal at all as almost everywhere quite common is where more than legal interest is charged by the banks under forms which protect against contingencies. A law of the character of the one existing in Oregon is upon the statutes of Massachusetts and we see by the Boston Traveller that strenuous efforts are being made to repeal it. The Traveller says

As to the irreligious and immoral character of usury, it has been taken unless we assume that all business is irreligious and immoral. How can it be irreligious and immoral to charge ten per cent profit on a transaction in money, when it is not irreligious and immoral to charge fifty per cent profit on a transaction in food or cloth or labor? The notion that usury is irreligious is a relic of other ages, ages in which men had no just conceptions of political economy. It was then held that any charge for the use of money was morally wrong. As to rates of interest, they are matters of local regulation and have nothing to do with the moral law. If morality entered into this portion of the subject, what a bulletin we might have at present!

For a long time five per cent was the legal rate of interest in England, while seven per cent was and still is the legal rate of interest in New York, six in Massachusetts, eight in Alabama, and so on—and yet every one of those communities recognize the same moral code, and they are Christian communities of the Protestant faith. If it was irreligious to take more than five per cent, which was the English rate, what shall be said of Massachusetts in which it is held to be moral and religious to take six per cent? What of New York and Alabama, where it is proper to take seven per cent and eight per cent? Do moral obligations, and those of religion, change with latitude and longitude? Can that be right in New York which is wrong in Boston? But even our own State has not been consistent with herself. She limited legal interest to six per cent, and then borrowed at 7 30—an increase of more than one-fifth in the rate, making the law wholly inoperative. She has violated her own ordinance, an ordinance considered to be morally binding, and which hitherto has defied all efforts to bring about its regular repeal. In all parts of Massachusetts agents of the Federal government have called upon the people to disregard the law of their State, and subscribe to loans for which 7.30 per cent. is paid, and it has been made a sort of test of loyalty that men should treat that law with contempt. Every man here who takes more than six per cent. from the general government for money loaned to it is guilty of a violation of that law of Massachusetts which condemns usury; and yet who thinks of punishing them? These being the facts, is it not time to make our laws conform to our practice,—to the course of the Commonwealth itself,—and remove a form of legislation which never was of much force, and the ideas involved in which are condemned by all sound economists?"

The Bankers' Magazine and Statistical Register, for March, 1866, reviews the rise and progress of the usury laws, and refers to cases which clearly establish the fact that the operation of such laws in the last four centuries, effectually prevented the extension of commerce throughout Europe and the world at large, and the author significantly points to the assertion that "It was not till the close of the eleventh century that Christian money-lenders became numerous, and the rise of this class was the immediate consequence of the commercial development of the Italian republics." The article closes by saying, that usury laws check the circulation of money, while they give rise to fraud and deceit on the part of some money lenders, who seek to evade the spirit and letter of the law

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

PORTLAND, May 18th, 1866

According to some accounts we receive from our merchants and business men, quietude is the prevailing feature in the wholesale and jobbing departments of the trade of this city, and prospects for the future are not very encouraging. They tell us that the expected large trade with Montana is not forthcoming, and doubtfully shake their heads with apprehension engendered concerning the extent of business in general. They consider it extremely doubtful whether their sales for the markets of Montana will ever be on a large scale

We have taken some trouble to investigate this matter, and we are decided in our own opinion, that there is no cause for croaking. The trade of the entire Pacific Coast is not so active the present season as was expected—indeed it has fallen off at San Francisco measurably—but, in the meantime the trade of this city is really better than it was last season, at a corresponding date. The shipping of our port has increased over last year, and while increased stocks are continually reaching us from supply ports, they do not augment, as the receipts fail to exceed the sales

Business in the direction of Montana is making slowly, but promises, we think, to be altogether up to the expectations which have been indulged in regarding it. The opening of direct communication via White Bluffs and Pen d'Oreille lake which is now established beyond a peradventure, will undoubtedly cause an increase in the business of this city within the next thirty days, though it is evident to our mind that to effect sales of any magnitude for the regions in question, our dealers must make the same concessions that are made by the San Francisco merchants and not expect to realize prices far beyond those of the latter city, adding transportation, etc

We have no particular changes to note in prices. Most articles tend downwards, and the quotations we offer are the lowest cash values

Domestic Produce Market.

PORTLAND May 18th 1866

There are few new characteristics in the produce markets worthy of special notice. Business appears to be increasing, but there is still an abundance of room for improvement and while we can report a moderate retail demand for some of the leading commodities, round lot operations are few and far between

Wheat is nominal. Oats dull with small sales from store at our quotations

There appears to be a little improvement in feeling regarding flour. The demand, it is thought by those best informed will certainly soon increase. The condition of the markets at Virginia City Montana, on the 16th of April as we learn from the Post was unsettled. Prices were fluctuating a little and quotations were for St. Louis flour per sack (100 lbs) $28, States $24, Salt Lake $21, other brands, $18. The quotations were at gold rates. At these figures flour could be even now shipped to that section from this market, and compete successfully in the trade.

The market for bacon is quiet and unchanged. Butter is in excess of demand. Good qualities command the highest rates in the market, but offerings of prime are limited. The market for eggs is somewhat irregular—quotations below may be considered the outside prices

Wheat for milling ℔ bushel	95

Woolen and Cotton Goods.

PORTLAND, May 18th, 1866

The San Francisco wool market lacks vitality for the want of competition between exporters. There is but a single shipper buying. This gives the local manufactures a good opportunity to stock up and make selections of such clips as are desirable for their business. It has been remarked by parties largely engaged in the business that the manufacturers were paying higher prices than there was any need of, there as the current rates are thought to be by growers

The tone of the general dry goods market East has not improved much lately according to our latest advices although a few of the leading spirits have done a better business. The depression of cotton proved a weight on the goods market which has thus far been impossible to remove. The dullness and depression of the woolen market has exerted a corresponding influence on the market for woolen fabrics. Hence very little is doing in any branch of the dry goods trade, with few exceptions, while prices are nominal. The Tribune says there is but very little prospect of any permanent or very decided improvement in this regard until the financial policy of the government shall have been fixed definitely, and the Tariff and Tax bills become adjusted and passed and the future price of these important staples settled. At present commercial values are uncertain and must so remain until Congress concludes to go to work in earnest. It was hoped that the marked advance in gold would set the wheels of commerce and trade in motion but there is no response to the movement in gold. In any department of trade. On the contrary, extreme apathy is everywhere the ruling feature, and the dry goods market forms no exception to the general rule. Wool is almost unsaleable, while cotton is but little better. The impression is general that the rise in gold was simply the result of speculation, and hence the advance of 3 per cent in a few hours was wholly ineffective. The fact appears to be that buyers are not able to purchase to any extent except on long credit, which the holders as a rule are not willing to grant. No objection is made to four months, but six months is a little too long to wait. But goods are steadily arriving from the manufacturing districts and stocks are steadily augmenting. As for foreign goods, importations have been so enormous, partly with a view to evade a high tariff, that the market is fairly flooded with all sorts of stuff, very much of which will have to be forced off at auction at a decided loss

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLOUR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases and you will ever give praise to

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and, all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

WATER WHEELS.

POWER PLEDGED EQUAL

TO THE

Best Overshot Wheel in Existence.

LEFFEL'S

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require measure your water in the following way. Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to LEFFEL & MYERS Oregon Iron Works,

SAN FRANCISCO.

THE GREAT ERADICATOR OF SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, FORMERLY OF LOCKE HOSPITAL, LONDON EIGHT YEARS IN SACRAMENTO AND THE LAST THREE YEARS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. TOZER'S

Experience is of forty years standing, and during that time has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all those diseases generally known as

Venereal or Chronic.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar; some perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self Abuse. The brain being the seat of the disease the whole system suffers in consequence. I will here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that those afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints, and seek advice in time, thereby saving themselves a world of suffering. Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, [illegible] and Aversion to Genial Society, especially that of Females. There are a great many more, but these are sufficient, and should you be suffering from any of them call on DR TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time, without any interruption in your business—or state your case by letter, and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office

Stricture of the Urethra

Is another formidable enemy to health. Send for one of my circulars on that disease, and inform yourself of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few days.

Venereal Diseases

In all their various forms, either Primary, Secondary or Hereditary, completely eradicated from the system. The constitution being restored to perfect health, there will be no danger of handing down to your children that terrible disease known as Scrofula.

Syphilitic Disease

As it presents itself on this coast, is of a more [illegible] character than that seen in the Atlantic [illegible] arising from the fact of its being a compound [illegible] Chinese and Sandwich Island disease. [illegible] have visited the two latter countries no [illegible] the dreadful effects of it on both the native [illegible] population. It requires altogether different [illegible] treatment.

The Old Formulas

Of Ricord, Actel and Bostwick are of little [illegible], except to dry up the disease on the surface, leaving the poison in the blood, which, sooner or later, will show itself as a secondary disease in an aggravated form. These facts I have learned by experience, and think that I can say without boasting that I have seen more practice in these diseases than any other physician in California, dating as it does from 1846. It becomes you therefore, to think well, before you employ a physician.

THAT OLD GREENBACK CASE

I am still obliged to accept of Legal Tender Notes at Par (and have been since Dec. 17, 1862, for the rent of my Handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public, that

JACOB MAYER

Leased the building of me Feb. 1st, 1862, for a term of years at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were Cash. Since the date above stated, I have received the depreciated currency regularly for the rent of the making less than two fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantages of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have such tenants in such costly buildings as the one referred to above.
